The Outdoor Adventure Program (OAP) offers numerous outdoor trips that include whitewater rafting, zip-lining, skydiving, backpacking, canoeing, camping, paddle boarding, surfing, skiing, climbing and much more. Many of our OAP trips target specific audiences and provide needed support for our Airmen and their families through the Recharge for Resiliency Program.

Recharge for Resiliency (R4R) is the capstone for resiliency programming across the Air Force. R4R encompasses the following key resiliency components: the Single Airman Programming Initiative (SAPI), RecOn and Deployed Affected Programming.

*Register online at travisfss.com/odr

Deployed Affected Programming

Provides resources targeting deployed affected service members and their families, giving relief from the challenges of deployment.

*Registration and payment are required prior to the day of the trip. All trips are subject to change due to factors beyond the control of Outdoor Recreation.

UNITE PROGRAM

C3 Contact: (707) 424-0610 | Kymberley.wayne.1@us.af.mil
ODR Contact: (707) 424-0499 | travis.odr@gmail.com

Unite is one component of CSAF Focus Area #1 “Revitalizing Squadrons.” Unit Commanders are in the best position to execute resources that benefit Airmen under their authority. This initiative provides unit commanders with the funding to initiate programs that benefit their unit. This program will benefit all Airmen in a unit — Active, Reserve, and Civilian (appropriated and non-appropriated employees) directly assigned to the squadron.

Consider Outdoor Recreation as an opportunity for UNITE Programming for your squadron. Interested POC’s are welcome to contact ODR for possible program ideas, but will need to coordinate with the base Community Cohesion Coordinator to finalize all events.

Vehicle Tow Requirement - See the Camp Trailer Policy

Camp Trailer Policy

Must have completed a Camp Trailer Orientation Course (CTOC) with ODR prior to rental.

*Renters must have 1/2 ton chassis with 7000+ towing capacity and breaking control box installed in the vehicle. *All trailer tanks MUST be entirely emptied and sanitized PRIOR to return. *FAM Camp has $5 dump station. *A $50 fee will be charged for sanitation cleaning fees associated with bathroom and tank cleaning. Reservations for all trailers can be made 90 days in advance. Minimum requirement for reservation is 3-business days prior to date of rental. A deposit equal to the item’s daily rental fee is required at time of reservation and will be refunded back to customer upon successful check-in of item. Any damage and or late fees will be deducted from this deposit. Any fees exceed the deposit, the customer will be responsible for paying the additional cost. The fee to cover the entire rental is due at time of pick-up of equipment. Travis Outdoor Recreation is not responsible for propane tank levels, hitches or electric adapters.

Renter must have insurance that will cover boat or trailer rental, and should stop by ODR for a pre-inspection prior to date of rental to ensure there are no issues with vehicle and boat/trailer hookup. Ask about travel distance limitations which may apply for both boats and trailers
